FROM FIELD AND FOREST TO PRAIRIE AND PLAIN...

our artists draw upon a wealth of wildlife from close to home and worlds away to inspire their intimate and meaningful animal portraiture. Often travelling all over the world to study their subjects in the field, our artists strive to reflect not just the beauty but the behaviour, character and movement of the creatures they portray, as well as, in some cases, to highlight the vulnerability of their species and fragility of their natural environments. Their dedication to observing the animal kingdom coupled with their artistic talents result in works of art that are not just visually pleasing, but also powerful in their meaning.
